

Merestone Continues to Win! A Silver Telly Award for 2010 (and two Gold Awards)

Merestone is on pace to achieve the winning year they had in 2004, and 2005 when they were honored with thirty-seven awards. This year they are the prestigious recipient of the Silver Telly and two Gold Tellys. The Telly Awards honor outstanding local, regional and cable television commercials and programs, as well as the finest video and film productions. The Telly Awards was founded in 1978 by David E. Carter, a past Emmy and Clio® winner, to honor excellence in local, regional and cable TV commercials. Non-broadcast video and TV program categories were soon added. Today, the Telly is one of the most sought-after awards by industry leaders, from large international firms to local production companies and ad agencies. With over 180 categories, more organizations than ever are eligible to participate. . Last year, Telly received over 10,000 entries from all 50 states and 5 continents. This year, Merestone submitted one entry to achieve the three (3) honors, which was an opening video for the Early Warnings. Opening General Session.
